

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 7, 2026

Saint Vincent Family Services Announces
Planned Retirement of President & CEO Susan Lewis Kaylor

COLUMBUS, Ohio — The Board of Trustees of Saint Vincent Family Services (SVFS) today announced that President & Chief Executive Officer Susan Lewis Kaylor will retire effective December 31, 2026, after nearly a decade of leadership.

Since joining Saint Vincent Family Services in 2017, Susan has led the organization through a period of growth and transformation, expanding services and strengthening support for children, youth, and families throughout Central Ohio.

"Susan has made an extraordinary difference for our organization and the children, youth, and families we serve," said Linda M. Martinez, Chair of the Board of Trustees. "The Board is deeply grateful for her leadership and service and wishes her every happiness in this next chapter."

Susan will continue serving as President & CEO through December 31, 2026, ensuring a thoughtful and seamless leadership transition.

"Serving Saint Vincent Family Services has been the honor of my life," said Susan Lewis Kaylor, President & CEO. "I am deeply grateful to our Board, staff, volunteers, partners, and supporters, and I leave with great confidence in the organization's future."

The Board of Trustees has approved a comprehensive CEO Transition Plan and will begin a formal search for the organization's next President & Chief Executive Officer in collaboration with the Diocese of Columbus. Additional information regarding the search process will be shared as it becomes available.

Media Contact:

Tameka White
Vice President, Human Resources and Training
Saint Vincent Family Services
T: (614) 255.5772 (direct dial)
twhite@svfc.org

About Saint Vincent Family Services

For more than 150 years, Saint Vincent Family Services has strengthened children, youth, and families through compassionate behavioral health, family support, and related services throughout Central Ohio.

###